

MELL ARNOLD, Sworn for the State. I was indicted in the Superior Court of Fulton County, on evidence produced by C. W. Burke, who was then special agent on the Southern Railway. There was absolutely no truth in the charges against me. Burke's main witness was one L. P. Eubanks I lost my job with the Southern Railway on account of this indictment. C. W. Burke was helping me, since he left the Southern Railway to get my position back. While Burke was helping me to get my job back, one day he asked me to see my brother-in-law, J. E. Duffey and to ask him to go to the residence of L. P. Eubanks on Alexander Street. I went to J. E. Duffey and told him to go to Eubank's house. I am not positive whether I told Duffey that C. W. Burke would be there at Eubanks' house or not. After I went to Duffey and requested him to go to Eubanks' house I was present when Duffey executed a paper for Burke. Burke and Eubanks however both knew that I was going to be present when they interviewed Duffey. After this occasion, I got my job back on the Southern. Fritz Lyn was also present when Duffey made this statement for Burke. I do not know myself about any money being paid. I had been promised the job by the Master Mechanic of the Southern Railway and Eubanks before the Duffey statement. I do not know whether it was the next week or the next month, but sometime soon after this I went back to work for the Southern Railway.
